In re:

Case No. 08-70815

JIMIKA BIANCA BARNETT, pro se,

Chapter 7

Debtor.

Judge Thomas J. Tucker

ORDER DENYING DEBTOR'S MOTION TO REINSTATE BANKRUPTCY CASE

This case comes before the Court on a Debtor's "Request for Bankruptcy Reinstatement," filed on January 16, 2009 (Docket # 20), which this Court construes as a motion for reconsideration of the Court's January 5, 2009 Order dismissing this case (Docket # 15).

The Court has reviewed and considered the motion for reconsideration and finds that the motion fails to demonstrate a palpable defect by which the Court and the parties have been misled, and that a different disposition of the case must result from a correction thereof. See Local Rule 9024-1(c).

In addition, the Court notes the following: Debtor is not eligible to be a debtor in this case under 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(1). That section provides in relevant part, that an individual may not be a debtor under this title unless such individual has, during the 180-day period preceding the date of filing the petition by such individual, received from an approved nonprofit budget and credit counseling agency described in section 111(a) an individual or group briefing (including a briefing conducted by telephone or on the Internet) that outlined the opportunities for available credit counseling and assisted such individual in performing a related budget analysis.

The only certificate of credit counseling that Debtor filed with the Court states that Debtor received "an individual [or group] briefing that complied with the provisions of 11 U.S.C. §§ 109(h) and 111" on January 5, 2009. (See "Certificate of Counseling," filed on January 5, 2009 (Docket # 16).) Debtor filed her voluntary petition for relief under Chapter 7 on December 17, 2008. Therefore, Debtor only received credit counseling after her petition was filed. With exceptions not applicable here, 11 U.S.C. § 109(h)(1) requires a debtor to obtain credit counseling before filing a bankruptcy petition.

Accordingly,

IT IS ORDERED that Debtor's "Request for Bankruptcy Reinstatement" (Docket # 20), is DENIED.

Signed on January 16, 2009
